When you think about your college, or your idea of college, what gives you a sense of satisfaction and excites you about its future? What talking points are you compelled to share?

I cannot think of a better place to work, or just to be, than a college. At Huntingdon, the wisdom of the past meets present challenges and sparks fresh ideas, change, growth, and new stories every day.

Much at Huntingdon has remained constant throughout our 165-year history: a focus on students as individuals; our strong relationship with Methodism; faculty who demonstrate excellence in teaching, scholarship and service; and a commitment to the liberal arts. This is the College's core identity. Huntingdon's past is storied, and her present and future promise an even more exciting story that builds on the past. Some features of this unfolding story may surprise you.

Did you know that Huntingdon is the only college in the country that provides to each traditional undergraduate student, as part of regular tuition and fees, a college-issued laptop/tablet; travel-study opportunities during the senior year; and, recently added, books and information resources?

Did you know that all Huntingdon sophomores now take a course, CALL 200, that engages them in activities requiring the development of ethical reasoning?

Did you know that, in the last decade, five members of Phi Beta Kappa have joined the Huntingdon faculty: Dr. Elizabeth Hutcheon (English); Dr. Allison Mugno (Psychology); Dr. Sarah Sours (Religion); Dr. Anneliese Spaeth (Mathematics); and Dr. William Young (Mathematics)?

Did you know that Huntingdon, as a part of its Vision "to respond to the needs of today's ... complex world," added a major in criminal justice in fall 2019?

Did you know that for the first time in Huntingdon history all three officers of the Board of Trustees are alumnae: The Honorable Leura Garrett Canary '78, Chair; Katrina R. Keefer '95, Vice Chair; and Betty Thurman McMahon '64, Secretary?

Did you know that Huntingdon Hawks Football is one of only 12 NCAA Division III football programs in the country, out of almost 250, that has earned a berth in the 32-school national playoffs four of the last five years?

In this issue, we share some of the unique, rare, distinctive, and new strengths that tell a more complete story of Huntingdon today. We hope that this fresh information will excite you and help you tell an even greater story than ever about The Home We Love So Well.

It's a great time to be a Hawk!

Faithfully your president,

J. Cameron West

Active learning reinforces classroom knowledge and builds students' skills as well as their resumes, through academic ventures such as internships, externships, student-faculty research, field trips, and Capstone projects. Students also learn teamwork and leadership skills through participation in student clubs and organizations, greek life, athletics, band, choir, recreation and intramurals, and community service. Unique, RARE, DISTINCTIVE, New

Huntingdon students, when asked what they believe is unique, rare, or distinctive about the Huntingdon experience, overwhelmingly cite the family-like atmosphere and the relationships formed among students, faculty, and staff. Because of its size, people can be known at Huntingdon, and therefore the energy and essence they contribute becomes the lifeblood of the institution.

Still, beyond Huntingdon's people there are aspects of the College that aren't replicated elsewhere (unique); or don't occur often in the higher education landscape (rare); or that are done especially well in comparison to other colleges (distinctive). There are also some exciting new facets of Huntingdon life introduced this academic year. Here are a few stand-out points in the Huntingdon story.

Huntingdon Plan travel/study, part of the Plan since its beginning, has taken students to Australia, Austria, Belize, Canada, the Caribbean, China, Costa Rica, Ecuador, England, France, Germany, Greece, Honduras, Iceland, Ireland, Israel and the Holy Lands, Kenya, Mexico, New Zealand, Northern Ireland, Panama, Puerto Rico, Scotland, Trinidad, Turkey, and many parts of the U.S., including numerous trips to Alaska and Hawaii. Without fail, graduates praise Huntingdon travel-study as one of their most transformative educational experiences. During 2019–2020, trips include Hawaii, Ireland, Australia, and Prague and Vienna. Pictured: Huntingdon in Iceland, June 2019.

Unique

THE HUNTINGDON PLAN

At Huntingdon, students are part of a living and learning community where every undergraduate has equal access to the tools and experiences that heighten student success in and beyond college. Through the Huntingdon Plan, introduced in 1996, traditional undergraduate students are provided books and information resources for fall and spring terms; four-year use of a laptop computer (the student's to keep at graduation); senior year travel-study opportunities; and active learning in each major—all within regular tuition and fees and all within a community where students can know and be known.

top left: Books are packaged based on each student's class schedule and distributed at the beginning of the term. The provision of books saves families at least $700 per year. top right: Huntingdon's student population has nearly doubled since 2003, but the College's small size, at about 860 full-time and 1100 students overall, remains one of its biggest assets. bottom: Although the computer has changed from a briefcase-sized 7-pound tank 23 years ago to today's lightweight touch-screen tablet, the purpose is the same: every student has equal footing from which to reach the Worldwide Web. In 1996, only half of new Huntingdon students had owned computers, but today all students come to college with lives shaped by access to technology.

Unique

THE CAMPUS

Huntingdon's beautiful campus was carved out of a field on the edge of the capital city, designed in 1908 by Frederick Law Olmsted Jr., who had planned the landscapes for the Boston Park System and the Biltmore Estate. John Jefferson Flowers Memorial Hall (1909), designed by H. Langford Warren of England, founder of the School of Architecture at Harvard University, set the Gothic architectural style for the campus, modeled after buildings at Oxford and Cambridge. The purchase of the former Cloverdale School building and grounds in 2001 expanded the campus across Fairview Avenue, and the acquisition of more than a dozen properties—including the former Richardson's Pharmacy and Capitol Book & News buildings—on nearby streets has married the campus with surrounding neighborhoods, forming the Huntingdon Village.

THE HUNTINGDON VILLAGE

During the past five years, Huntingdon has purchased a number of homes and apartments near the campus, expanding housing options for upper-level students. In the fall of 2020, Huntingdon will institute a four-year residential policy, requiring students to live in Huntingdon housing unless they live with a parent or guardian within 45 miles of campus. Statistically, students who live on campus are more likely to be involved in their college experience and more likely to persist through graduation.

INTERCOLLEGIATE WRESTLING IN ALABAMA

Huntingdon's intercollegiate wrestling program, introduced in 2014, remains the only college-level program in Alabama and one of only a few in the Southeast.

ORACLE

We can't talk about it. Can't show a picture of it. Many in the Huntingdon community can't even do it. But for those who can and do, the memories are legendary. 'Nuff said.

RARE

A FOCUS ON UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATION

For 165 years, Huntingdon's teaching, staffing, student life programming, and resources have fed and funded students in their quest for undergraduate education. While the College will introduce graduate programs in the coming years, the primary mission will remain as shepherds for undergraduate learning.

THE MARCHING SCARLET & GREY

Huntingdon's Marching Scarlet & Grey—the only conference marching band that travels—was the first and remains the largest in the USA South Athletic Conference. Each band member receives a scholarship, uniforms, and a new instrument (his/hers to keep at graduation), with no fee required for participation. Auxiliaries include the Hawkettes (majorettes), Color Guard (flag line), and, beginning in fall 2020, a dance line. Entering its fourteenth year with a new director, Dr. Rusty Logan, the band has birthed the Huntingdon Winds Concert Band, Huntingdon Jazz, and BallHawks Pep Band. Many band members also participate in the College's Concert Choir and vocal ensembles.

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Huntingdon College's Methodist church threads were entwined in the fiber of its founding, and those threads have only strengthened during its 165 years. A member of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, the bishops of the AWFC and the North Alabama Conference serve on the board of trustees, and President J. Cameron West is an ordained elder in full connection with the church. A quick scroll through the AWFC clergy list reveals dozens of Huntingdon alumni who answered the call to ministry while they were Hawks, two of whom are giving back through ministry outreach at HC: the Rev. Rhett Butler '13, chaplain, and the Rev. Macon Armistead '14, director of the Huntingdon Leadership Academy, a summer program for high school students who feel called to ministry vocations.

THE CORE

Huntingdon's core curriculum is still grounded in the liberal arts, offering students courses that encourage and develop critical thinking—a skill that will always be in demand.

DISTINCTIVE

MISSION & MOTTO

“Enter to Grow in Wisdom; Go Forth to Apply Wisdom in Service,” the motto carved above the front door of Flowers Hall, and by virtue of its proximity, the front door of the campus, is known to every traditional student and graduate.

FACULTY PRECEPT: GOOD TEACHING

The “publish or perish” mantra for faculty in large universities has no place at Huntingdon, where the measure of excellence among faculty is good teaching as assessed by faculty peers and leaders and by students.

TEACHER EDUCATION

Of all of the fields Huntingdon graduates populate, there are perhaps more teachers than any other profession. Hundreds of Huntingdon alumni teach at every level in the U.S. and abroad—and that number doesn't count alumni who teach as an avocation, lending their service as coaches and camp directors, Sunday school teachers, youth program leaders ... the list is long and uplifting. Teacher education programs have been part of Huntingdon's academic offerings since the College's earliest days. Today, Huntingdon educator preparation programs include elementary/collaborative special education; secondary education or secondary/collaborative special education in biology, chemistry-general science, English language arts, history, history-general social studies, or mathematics; P-12 music education (choral or instrumental); and P-12 physical education.

For many years, Huntingdon Adapted Physical Education students have worked with special needs children from selected area schools, teaching basic skills and movements for improving their lives.

STATON CENTER FOR LEARNING ENRICHMENT

The Staton Center for Learning Enrichment, in new office spaces on the second floor of Houghton Library, offers three devoted staff members and a number of students who serve as peer academic coaches to smooth the rough spots of academic life. Writing assistance, tutoring, time management, vocational discernment, and friendly advice are among the beacons offered by the Staton Center.

CENTER FOR CAREER AND VOCATION

Run by one-woman powerhouse Sherry Leigh Lacey Farquhar '13, the Center for Career and Vocation offers myriad programs that connect students with vocational opportunities through job fairs, road trips, workshops, networking gatherings, luncheons, individual help with resume writing and interviewing skills, and group information sessions.

MEN'S GOLF

Without question, golf is the most storied sport at Huntingdon, having driven their way into 30 national tournaments (19 NAIA and 11 NCAA-III), and earning six NAIA national championships, one NAIA and two NCAA-III national runner-up finishes, two NAIA and one NCAA-III national third-place finishes, and two NCAA-III national fourth-place finishes—not to mention the number of individual champions and successful professional players and coaches who have come from the program, introduced in 1959. Since 1982, the golf team has been ranked among the top teams nationally almost every year in either NAIA (until 2004) or NCAA-III (since 2005). In 2017, the three NCAA national coaches of the year were all graduates of Huntingdon's program: Division I Coach Scott Limbaugh '03, at Vanderbilt University; Division II Coach Steve Fell '87 at the University of West Florida; and Division III Coach Dave Schreyer '89, at Huntingdon.

DISTINCTIVE

THE SCIENCES

Biology and Cell Biology

Alabama provides treasures just waiting to be researched. A large number of rare and endangered plant and animal species and wide biodiversity contribute to a biological wonderland for student researchers, so Huntingdon's biology programs take students into the Alabama landscape frequently. An interdisciplinary minor in environmental studies was introduced last year. As part of Huntingdon's membership in the Alabama Marine Environmental Sciences Consortium, students may earn a minor in marine science through summer study at Dauphin Island Sea Lab.

Chemistry and Biochemistry

Huntingdon students majoring in chemistry or biochemistry complete undergraduate research as part of their major requirements. Their research has made it possible for students to qualify for fellowships with Merck, the DOE Nuclear Summer School Program, and National Science Foundation Summer REU programs. Huntingdon's biochemistry major earned professional accreditation from the American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology in 2018.

Exercise Science and Sport Studies

The sciences extend, also, to the sport sciences. Huntingdon's programs are respected in Alabama as being at the forefront of disability sport and training for professionals working with populations who have special needs. Active learning through Adapted Physical Education classes and/or work with Huntingdon's Red Wings wheelchair sport teams (for community youth who have physical disabilities) engages many students. Students may also enhance their resumes through work in the College's on-campus ProImpact Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy clinic.

Pre-Health Professions

Huntingdon's science faculty have formed a Pre-Health Professions Committee, which reviews and monitors the progress of students who intend to enter professional schools after graduating. Track programs in athletic training, dentistry, medicine, nursing, occupational therapy, optometry, pharmacy, physical therapy, and veterinary medicine suggest courses that meet professional school prerequisites, and PHPC members provide advice on interviewing, test preparation, and the professional admission process. Students who meet the requirements and guidelines of the PHPC may receive letters of recommendation from the committee.

These aspects of Huntingdon academic life, combined with stellar faculty, contribute to producing science graduates who are well-prepared for graduate or professional school placement or for gaining employment in their fields.

The 2019–2020 Presidential Fellows and their mentors and coaches.

PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWS

Intellectual curiosity fueled by active learning form the core directives for Huntingdon’s newest group of scholars: the Presidential Fellows. Selected from applicants achieving high school grade point averages of 3.0 or better and ACT composites of at least 23, 25 Presidential Fellows entered in fall 2019, each involved in one of seven academic teams: Ability First; Academic Mentoring; Forensics/Debate; Media Production; Sports Marketing; Technology; or Undergraduate Research. Engagement through student life programming, service, and completing a Capstone Project are among other commitments. The fellowship carries a $5,000 scholarship that may be stacked with some Huntingdon academic awards. In turn, Fellows flourish in the art of learning while developing their skills, experience, and resumes for life after college.

The group arrived early for fall semester, spending a day on retreat bonding with each other and with their team coaches (faculty members) and six sophomore peer mentors. Periodic meetings with program director Leanne Mallory Carroll ’05 for sessions on time management, personality and aptitude testing, college involvement, and other topics stoke student success.

“The work of the Presidential Fellows program reminds me of Proverbs 27:17,” says mentor Anna Nutting ’22 of Montgomery. “As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.” Each Fellow is offered a niche for developing his or her talents, which in turn strengthens our community. When they are not participating on their teams, they immerse themselves in all facets of the campus.”

“The [Presidential Fellows] program is outstanding and is enhancing the professional and personal skills of the students in their first year of college,” says Dr. Maureen Kendrick Murphy ’78, professor of chemistry. Dr. Murphy and professor John Berch ’98 coach the research team, which is analyzing metal content in exotic orchids. “They made some discoveries that have never been reported in the research literature,” says Dr. Murphy, who plans for Fellows to present their work at a professional conference in spring 2020.

Christopher Mayer ’23, a political science major from Bennington, Vt., chose the Forensics/Debate Team because of his desire for a career in law and politics. The team requires students to stay up-to-date on current issues and to formulate speeches based on ways to address those issues. “Public speaking, critical thinking, academic writing, and professional research skills are critical for being successful on our team,” says Chris. “[The PF] program benefits the College because [it is based on] positive educational work. It also betters the students because we are able to do more with our interests.” The Forensics/Debate team began competing in tournaments this fall, receiving high rankings, praise, and awards from judges.

AaLeah Scott '23, of Montgomery, Ala., is a member of the Sports Marketing Team. An exercise science major who plans to earn a doctorate in physical therapy after graduating, AaLeah chose her team because, though not directly related to her major, her work helps her learn a different aspect of sports. “Being a part of the PF program has helped me make new friends and feel more comfortable as I transitioned from high school to college,” says AaLeah. “I consider our group as one big family. I love that Huntingdon is small in size and community-oriented.”

In some cases, Fellows are performing work equivalent to staff positions for the College. Jacob Holston '23 serves as a technology fellow and was responsible for readying an electronic attendance system as fall classes began, requiring the installation of imaging devices, wiring buildings, testing, and troubleshooting.

Sophomore mentors provide guidance and friendship to the Fellows and say they're also benefiting from the program. “The transition into college is very exciting, but can also be a scary, stressful time,” says mentor Amelia Blair '22 of Montgomery. “We are there to provide a built-in community [as well as] advice from people who were just in their shoes last year. We attend the PF meetings, share meals in the dining hall, share stories of our first year at Huntingdon, provide life advice and study tips, and even take spontaneous trips to get milkshakes!”

“I have grown in my leadership skills by being a mentor,” says Colby Hutson '22 of Cullman, Alabama. “I love knowing I am making an impact in someone's life and always welcome the opportunity to help make someone feel at home.”

“The Fellows program has been an amazing addition to Huntingdon College,” says Amelia. “They have been eager to serve others, to be involved, and to challenge themselves academically. They have offered their gifts and talents for the benefit of our school and have done it with grateful hearts.”

Because of the time demands, Fellows program participation is reserved for those who are not part of an athletic team, cheerleading, or band—but Fellows have a team of their own, forming camaraderie through a common goal. Kurt Kraft '23, a communication studies major and music minor from Enterprise, Ala., is participating in the Media Production team. “I find a new reason to enjoy my time here each and every day,” says Kurt. “The school is great, the people are greater, and the atmosphere is like no other.”

Jacob Holston '23 wires a building for improved technology.

John Samuel Cason '23 researches the metal content in exotic orchids.

MASTER OF ATHLETIC TRAINING PROGRAM

A milestone was reached this year as Huntingdon began the planning process for introducing the College's first graduate program. Once approved, the new Master of Athletic Training program will prepare students for careers in allied health care, with skills involving injury prevention and evaluation, emergency care, treatment and rehabilitation, and organizational administration in a sports or active population environment.

Huntingdon discontinued admission to its undergraduate program in athletic training several years ago, knowing that licensure was moving to the graduate level. With the new national graduate-level licensure requirement enforced, Huntingdon's graduate program could be among the first such programs in the state.

Dr. Jennifer Ballard, assistant professor of athletic training, is working with a team of athletic training leaders to develop the curriculum and to plan the structure and staffing needed to support the program.

Offering a graduate program requires submission and approval of a level change proposal to SACSCOC (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges). The planning team will also seek approval through the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE), through which specialized accreditation for the College's former undergraduate athletic training program was granted.

UNDERGRADUATE CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR

In response to student demand, Huntingdon began a new undergraduate major in criminal justice in fall 2019. The program, headed by former FBI agent Dr. Lou Harris, combines practice with theory. Study includes the causes of crime, an understanding of the interdependence of the branches of the criminal justice system, constitutional law and its application, moral and ethical perspectives of law and justice, criminal investigation, and forensics.

CALLING, VOCATION, AND ETHICS

Since his arrival in 2003, President J. Cameron West has captained a directive and a deep commitment to helping students develop a stronger sense of what they are called to do with their lives. In 2015, the College became a charter member of the Network for Vocation in Undergraduate Education (NetVUE), and subsequently piloted a core course on the subject of vocation, the junior-level Leading Lives that Matter. With the 2019–2020 academic year, that course has expanded to two courses with activities and groups surrounding dual foci on vocation and ethics.

Sophomore Year Is Calling

During the sophomore year, students take the one-credit-hour course, Introduction to Ethics and Vocation (CALL 200). As the semester begins, students gather for Sophomore Year Is Calling, a day devoted to vocational and ethical exploration. As students complete the CALL 200 course, they engage in meaningful reflection on the possibilities for their lives and career plans.

The Junior Year: Call 300

A junior-level two-credit course, CALL 300, Perspectives in Ethics and Vocation, further encourages students along the pathway toward the goal of living well.

Sophomores in the CALL 200 course tour the Equal Justice Initiative's National Memorial for Peace and Justice in Montgomery.

THE CAROLINE SLAWSON CAMPUS COMMONS

Students were greeted with a new space for studying and gathering as fall semester began. Caroline Slawson Campus Commons, constructed at the entrance and in the first floor of Houghton Memorial Library, offers new study pods complete with lamps and footrests, comfortable chairs and tables, swivel desks, and 24/7 access for both residents and commuters. Continuing to the second floor, new furniture and a new classroom support individual and group study, and the Staton Center for Learning Enrichment has moved to the second floor, as well. "I love the new cubicles," says Lucy Burch '21. "They're perfect for studying, writing papers—just focusing. I get more done because they provide a more private study environment than open tables do." The project was funded by a generous gift from the Guice Slawson family.

THE PHYLLIS & GENE STANALAND HOUSE AT HUNTINGDON COLLEGE, AND THE SCARLET & GREY SHOP

Extensive renovation to the former Capitol Book & News building at 1140 East Fairview Avenue, across from the Cloverdale Campus and two blocks away from the main campus, involved gutting the inside of the building and refinishing it from toe to top while adding a wrap-around porch, a drive-through window, and parking areas. Renamed the Phyllis and Gene Stanaland House at Huntingdon College in honor of the 1960 alumnus and his long service (since 1991) on the board of trustees, the house is home to the College's bookstore, the Scarlet & Grey Shop, and sells Hawks apparel, supplies, a few food items, and Starbucks coffee. The House was dedicated September 7, and the grand opening was held October 2.

NEW ART SPACE

The creation of an art studio in Smith Hall has allowed that building to house most of the programs in the Department of Fine Arts. Huntingdon students may minor in art.

These are just a few examples of the unique, rare, distinctive, and new stories that build on Huntingdon's 165-year narrative. Far more important, though, are the personal stories from those whose minds, hearts, and lives have been enriched by the Huntingdon experience.

Snapshots illustrate the story of life at Huntingdon College during the past year.

1 Area P.E. teachers participated in a January 2019 Adapted Physical Education Activity Workshop, led by Dr. Lisa Olenik Dorman, professor of sport science and physical education (SSPE), and students in Huntingdon's Adapted P.E. and sport science programs. The workshop, in partnership with the Alabama Department of Public Health and the Alabama State Department of Education, was one of several HC SSPE trainers offered around the state, funded by a grant (Grant 5NU27DD000017-03-00) from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

2 Dr. Paul Chilcote, professor of theology and director of United Methodist studies at Asbury Theological Seminary, spoke in January 2019 on "The Wesleyan Vision" for local clergy and HC religion faculty, part of the Chapman Benson Lecture Series.

3 More than 150 members of the Huntingdon community assembled 10,000 meal kits in partnership with Rise Against Hunger, an international hunger relief organization, during the January 21, 2019, Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service.

7 Vann Vocal Institute artistic director and head faculty member David Cangelosi greeted audience members following the March 7, 2019, VVI Celebrity Recital, offered in cooperation with the Montgomery Symphony. The annual Vann Vocal Institute brings world-renowned opera singers to the Huntingdon stage to perform for the recital and to lead master classes for young singers, held the two days following the recital. As the institute concludes, selected young singers perform in competition for cash awards. The 2020 Vann Vocal Institute Celebrity Recital will be offered Thursday, March 12, at 7:00 p.m. in Ligon Chapel; while the Institute will be held on campus March 13–14.

8 During 12 field trips to various Alabama sites during the spring semester, field biology students identified nearly 600 different species and met 8 professional biologists. One such trip became a defining experience for student Noah Roberts '19, who collected samples that looked like freshwater shrimp from a stream near Old Cahawba Prairie. The specimens were actually members of another crustacean group, the Amphipoda. Dr. Jim Daniels, professor of biology, posted a photo on iNaturalist, a biodiversity app. A graduate student at Florida A&M University, Andrew Cannizzaro, identified the species in the genus Synurella based on the photo. Dr. Daniels then shipped several specimens to Mr. Cannizzaro, who concluded, "This population probably represents an undescribed species." Dr. Daniels and Mr. Cannizzaro are collaborating further to describe the species. Alabama is fifth in the nation in biodiversity, making it a rich and plentiful playground for field biologists.

- 6 The reigning Mr. Huntingdon and Miss Huntingdon are Cameron Page '22, of Mary Esther, Fla., left, and Linsey Smithart '20 of Andalusia, Ala., crowned in separate pageants held in March and April 2019.
- 7 The Alabama Association of Independent Colleges and Universities Ambassador Program is a student-led legislative advocacy program supporting the Alabama Student Grant program and Alabama's independent higher education institutions. Huntingdon's AAICU ambassador, Katie Sullivan '19, left, met Robert La Branche '06, executive director of the Military Stability Foundation, at the capitol building in April 2019. Katie also served as a legislative intern for Senator Cam Ward during the spring semester.
- 8 Dr. Jared Rehm, assistant professor of kinesiology and biomechanics, earned his second national championship in April. In 2005, he helped his Auburn University wheelchair basketball team achieve a National Wheelchair Basketball Association intercollegiate championship. In 2019, his adult Division III team won the adult NWBA tournament in Chicago. Dr. Rehm was selected by the National Institute on Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research to serve as a reviewer for their field-initiated program grant competition last spring. In October 2019 he was inducted into the McGill-Toolen High School (Mobile, Ala.) Hall of Fame. In the fall, he co-authored an article published in Sports: "Kinetic Analysis of Swimming Flip-Turn Push-Off Techniques," with W. Weimer, A. Sumner, B. Romer, J. Fox, B. Decoux, and J. Patel.

9 In the spring of 2019, Main Street Fine Books and Manuscripts in Galena, Ill., inquired regarding Houghton Library’s interest in purchasing a book that had come into its possession, “Two Boys in the Civil War and After,” authored by M.B. Houghton (for whom Huntingdon’s library is named) and his brother, W.K. Houghton. The book is inscribed “Woman’s College of Ala. Compliments of W.B. Houghton, March 26th 1912.” Using an old card catalog, shelf list, and accession number, HC librarians determined that this volume once resided in the HC library but was recorded as missing during inventories in 1965 and 1979. Learning this information, the bookstore waived their asking price for the book, $695, and shipped it free of charge to Houghton Library, where it will live in the archives’ special collections—home at last, after more than 50 years.

10 Sidney Carol Hall '19, of Dothan, Ala., received the College’s Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award in April, given each year to a student who demonstrates outstanding service, faith, and character. During Commencement Exercises in May, Sidney Carol received the College’s annual Loyalty Award.

11 New Student Government Association executive officers were elected and installed in April. The 2019–2020 officers are, from left, director of public relations Addison Fuller '22; treasurer Candy Martinez '20; president Virginia Gaston '20; vice president George (Mac) McNeilly '21; and secretary Lucy Burch '21.

12 The Concert Choir, under the direction of Dr. Damion Womack, chair of the Department of Fine Arts and director of choral activities, presented their spring concert in April 2019. During 2019–2020, the choir has been invited to perform for the Alabama Vocal Association Fall Convocation, the Alabama Choral Directors Association Collegiate Choral Festival, the Alabama Music Educators Association, and the American Choral Directors Regional Convention. They are planning a tour in Georgia and South Carolina in March 2020. The choir will offer their 2020 spring concert April 14 in Ligon Chapel.

13 The Dr. and Mrs. John N. Todd Award, recognizing excellence in teaching among junior (non-tenured) faculty members, was presented to Dr. Sarah Conrad Sours, assistant professor of religion, during Awards Convocation in April.

Huntingdon College academic programs presented the first ever Academic Showcase in March 2019. The day-and-evening-long event included paper presentations from religion students; demonstrations and poster presentations from sport science students; seniors presenting their Capstone projects; science students presenting their original research; poster presentations from accounting, business, biology, chemistry, communication studies, history, Houghton Library, mathematics, political science, psychology, and teacher education students; readings and performances from English students; a student art exhibit in Seay Twins Gallery; and a Forensic and Debate Team event.

top: SSPE students provided blood pressure checks and demonstrations of adapted physical education during the Academic Showcase, March 14, 2019.

bottom: Science students, including Jordan McElroy '20, presented their original undergraduate research.

- 1 Katie Simon '20, a P-12 physical education major (right), practiced her interviewing skills while preparing to enter the job market at the April 2019 CCV Teacher Education Job Fair.
- 2 Huntingdon Winds and Huntingdon Jazz performed their annual outdoor concert, an event that attracts neighbors and friends as well as members of the College family, April 23, 2019.
- 3 There may be no event that brings smiles to the faces of weary students quite like Pets on the Porch. Occurring during finals each semester, these pooches provide just the right amount of cuddles and distraction from the business at hand.

Commencement

1 Rain forced 2019 Commencement Exercises indoors, but Class of 2019 traditional day program graduates saw only sunny skies ahead.

2 Dr. Blake Ball, left, assistant professor of history, received the Winn and Gordon Chappell Academic Enrichment Award, presented by trustee Dr. Rick Chappell, son of long-time faculty members Winn and Gordon Chappell. The award is given annually during commencement to a member of the faculty who has demonstrated exceptional student engagement and student achievement in the arts and sciences. Dr. Ball's revised doctoral dissertation, "Charlie Brown's America," which covers American political history from the 1950s to the 1980s through the lens of Charles Schulz's "Peanuts" comic strip, will be published by Oxford University Press. An op-ed article he authored for the Washington Post, "How Snoopy Helped Us Remember D-Day," was published in June.

3 Dr. Michael Bamman, associate professor of sport science and chair, Department of Sport Science and Physical Education, received the Julia Lightfoot Sellers Award, voted by members of the junior and senior classes to be given during commencement to the faculty member who has most inspired students to nobility of purpose and integrity of character.

4 Madame Camille Elebash-Hill, emerita adjunct assistant professor of French, was given the Rhoda C. Ellison Distinguished Faculty Lifetime Service Award during commencement. The award honors retiring faculty members who have devoted their teaching careers to serving the students of Huntingdon College.

5 Class of 2019 Evening Studies graduates earned their diplomas through the Evening Bachelor's Degree Program, which allows returning learners to complete their degrees by taking classes one-at-a-time, one night a week, in five-week sessions. Classes are offered in 10 locations around the state, including a new location that will open in 2020 at Northwest-Shoals Community College in Muscle Shoals.

6 Leura Garrett Canary '78, who became chair of the College's board of trustees in October and serves as general counsel for the Retirement Systems of Alabama, delivered the commencement address during the traditional day ceremony in May. Appointed by President George W. Bush and confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve as the U.S. attorney for the Middle District of Alabama in 2001, she was the first woman appointed to the office and, to date, the longest-serving individual in the post, serving 10 years. She chaired the national Child Exploitation Committee and crafted Project Safe Childhood, which remains a national priority initiative for the Department of Justice. During her service, the Middle District of Alabama's office won a national award for its program combating gun violence. She was recognized with the Huntingdon College Alumni Achievement Award in 2011.

Huntingdon's summer academies for high school students help young learners listen for their vocational calling, whether in economic and community development, as with the Economic and Community Development Scholars; or in health care, as with the Huntingdon Health Sciences Academy; or in ministry, as with the Huntingdon Leadership Academy. Huntingdon also hosted a portion of Girls State during summer 2019.

- 1 Girls State brought outstanding high school women-leaders from all over the state to campus in June.
- 2 Economic and Community Development Scholars are rising high school seniors selected for participation in the annual program by their area Chamber of Commerce.
- 3 Huntingdon Health Sciences Academy welcomes rising high school seniors who have achieved cumulative grade point averages of at least 3.4 and who are interested in careers in health and wellness.
- 4 Huntingdon Leadership Academy students are rising high school juniors and seniors from churches across the state and the Florida panhandle.

HUNTINGDON HAPPENINGS

- 1 Australia was the destination for this group of Hawks traveling through the Huntingdon Plan in June 2019.
- 2 Addi Genard '21, a communication studies major from Mobile, Ala., and intern with WVTM-Channel 13 in Birmingham, Ala., was one of 25 Huntingdon student-interns earning resume-worthy experience during summer 2019. Internships may be arranged by Huntingdon's Center for Career and Vocation or by the student; for pay or for experience only; credit or no credit; and full- or part-time. Since 2017, students have interned for more than 100 offices, organizations, businesses, schools, or other entities tracked by the CCV.
- 3 These Huntingdon Plan travelers adventured through Iceland in June 2019.
- 4 This Huntingdon Plan travel-study group explored the biodiversity in Costa Rica, June 2019.

HUNTINGDON HAPPENINGS

- 1 First Lady Elizabeth West joined Huntingdon resident assistants and residence directors in helping new students move into the residence halls as the school year began.
- 2 Orientation Leaders welcomed new students and their families to their college home during summer orientation sessions.
- 3 Class attendance is the number one predictor of student success, so this year Huntingdon employed a new system that tracks attendance through students' I.D. cards. The system merges with Canvas (the College's digital delivery system), making Canvas a central file holding grades, attendance, and class materials.
- 4 SGA president Virginia Gaston '20 was one of two presidents who addressed the crowd during the annual Presidential Convocation, September 4, 2019. (The other was President J. Cameron West.)

- 5 Lillian Paige Hermeling '23, right, and Dr. Sara Shoffner, assistant professor of sport management, are an example of the mentoring relationships fostered among Huntingdon faculty and students. This fall, three new measures connected students with faculty or staff in order to offer comprehensive assistance and welcome during the first semester. First-year students were grouped in Wing Cohorts, each assigned a Wing Sponsor with whom they met periodically. New students were each given a Huntingdon Connection, with whom the student met individually during the fall semester. Sophomores participating in the CALL 200 class (see page 14) chose a Guide who discussed with the student a particular assignment in the class.
- 6 New students learned the Huntingdon Honor Code during the Honor at Huntingdon convocation, held on the eve of the first day of classes.

1 The CCV Sport Management Networking Luncheon (September) was one of many field-focused events sponsored by the CCV in 2019.

2 Fifty-nine women accepted bids to Panhellenic sororities—Alpha Omicron Pi, Chi Omega, and Phi Mu—on Bid Day, September 4, 2019. Among men, 29 pledged to fraternities Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Nu, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. Alpha Kappa Alpha and Phi Beta Sigma follow different recruitment processes. About a quarter of full-time undergraduate students are involved in greek life.

3 Worship and Waffles, a favorite event, pairs Tuesday Night Worship with a Waffle House truck.

4 Waterslide helped students make a splash during the first week of classes. A snow-cone truck put the icing on the evening.

5 The CCV's annual HC Central Perk event promoted conversation and networking between students, faculty, staff, young area professionals, and alumni over coffee and scones in September 2019.

6 The Marching Scarlet & Grey was joined by nearly 200 high school musicians representing 50 schools for their Scarlet & Grey Marching Honor Band, September 7, 2019.

7 Keturah Billen '20, left, and men's and women's basketball team members and coaches volunteered for Chappy's Deli's Breakfast for Babies, serving hundreds of meals as a fundraiser to benefit the March of Dimes, September 13, 2019.

1 A luau at the Wynlakes Country Club pool closed the first week of classes in fall 2019.

2 New students soaked up Brunch and Tie-Dye, part of Big Red Weekend, August 2019.

3 HC Campus Rec provides both fun and fitness through intramural sports. Students form their own teams and sign up for competition.

4 Student Recruiters give tours and assist the Office of Admission with other recruiting activities. 7 Forensic/Debate Team member Lavia Walker '20, left, won first place in Prose and third place in Persuasion and earned Top Novice honors in each of her events, a distinction given to the most outstanding individual participating in his/her first year of competition, during the Cleveland State Forensics Classic Speech and Debate Tournament in Cleveland, Tenn., in October 2019. Chris Mayer '23, center, spoke in Impromptu. Colleen Collins '20, right, earned fourth place in Persuasion. This was only the team's second tournament.

8 The President's Block Party brought students, faculty, and staff to the street in front of the Delchamps President's Home for hot dogs, conversation, corn hole, and other games in October.

HOMECOMING

- 1 Members of the 2019 Homecoming Court filed onto the field as the skies opened up, and by the time Sidney Ison '20, escorted by her father, was crowned there wasn't a dry piece of clothing on anyone. No matter, though. It was a Homecoming to remember and the smiles could not be dampened.
- 2 Student organizations' tents line the field and tailgating is a favorite aspect of Hawks football.
- 3 "For Huntington, Forever." was the theme of Homecoming (October 4-5) and Family Weekend (October 5) 2019. During the festivities, six alumni were honored for achievement and loyalty and five were inducted into the College's Athletic Hall of Fame (see ClassNotes).
- 4 Hank the Hawk escorted the Homecoming Court during the Hawk Walk, with senior attendants and queen contenders in the front row, from left, Candy Martinez, Virginia Gaston, Sidney Ison, and Autumn Allday.
- 5 Trivia Night is among a list of Homecoming week events planned by the Campus Activities Board and the Office of Student Affairs.

HUNTINGDON HAPPENINGS

1 The Office of Admission offers Preview Days on selected Saturdays, inviting prospective students and their families to tour campus; learn about academic and student life programs, financial aid, and scholarships; meet faculty and current students; and find their college home. The program begins at 9:00 a.m. and concludes before lunch. To learn more, contact the Office of Admission at (334) 833-4497 or go to www.huntingdon.edu/visit.

2 Riley Szabo '22, discussing Octavia Butler's book, "Kindred," was among the presenters for a two-day mini-conference, "To Boldly Go," sponsored by Houghton Library in October 2019. The event, part of the library's semester-long observance of the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon walk, provided a low-stress, encouraging environment in which students could practice their presentation skills.

3 On November 8, 2019, Dr. Maureen Kendrick Murphy '78 became the first college professor ever to be profiled for the WSFA Class Act award, honoring excellence in teaching. News anchor Tonya Terry surprised Dr. Murphy in the middle of her Gen Chem class. In a twist of irony, this award came just as Dr. Murphy was turning in her chalk and switching roles to serve as site coordinator for the College's new Evening Bachelor's Degree site at Northwest-Shoals Community College in Muscle Shoals, Ala. Dr. Murphy has commuted three hours every week and weekend, teaching at Huntingdon but living in North Alabama. Now she'll work in the same town as her home—a welcome change for this top-notch professor.

5 Women's softball team members volunteered for Zoo Boo at the Montgomery Zoo in October 2019.

HUNTINGDON HAPPENINGS

- 1 Meet the Firms, an annual CCV event, is an avenue for accounting students to learn more about firms in the area, and for firms to recruit new employees.
- 2 A Service of Lessons and Carols has become Huntingdon's traditional Christmas service, held on the eve of the last day of classes for the fall term, preceded by a parade, caroling, and the lighting of the Christmas trees.
- 3 Interim vice president for academic affairs and dean of faculty Dr. Tom Perrin, who headed the College's Quality Enhancement Plan, presented the plan to the visiting team from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, October 29, 2019. The QEP is part of an extensive review completed every ten years by SACSCOC accredited colleges. Huntingdon's QEP focuses on vocational calling and ethics, and garnered only positive comments from the visiting team.
- 4 Dr. Ed Bridges, director emeritus of the Alabama Department of Archives and History, spoke on his book, "Alabama: the Making of an American State," an Alabama Bicentennial event sponsored by the libraries of the Montgomery Higher Education Consortium, November 12. Dr. Bridges serves as chair of the steering committee for the Alabama Bicentennial Commission.
- 5 Dr. Jennifer Fremlin, professor of English, and other faculty, staff, and students, read poems or literary excerpts for Houghton Library's fall salon, Dead Poets Society, October 31, 2019. The event will become part of a new poetry club on campus founded by Presidential Fellows Vivian Scott '23 and Rebekah Wriston '23.
- 6 Students planning careers in health care explored graduate and professional programs through the CCV's annual Health Professions Fair, held November 14, 2019.

Joseph Crespino's book, "Atticus Finch: The Biography" (2018) features more than five pages about the 1951–1953 pastorate of the Rev. RAY E WHATLEY '45 in Monroeville, Ala. The setting of Harper Lee's "Go Set a Watchman" represents that period, as well.

LANELLE ANDREWS ROWE '48 lost most of her possessions in Hurricane Michael's devastation of Panama City, Fla., in October 2018, and is getting settled in her new home in Sunset Bay.

Lt. Col. JOSEPH (ED '49) and DOROTHY BARTON MOORE '48 have been married for 70 years. Ed retired from the U.S. Army and later as assistant to the chairman of community and allied health at the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Dot retired in 1962 from civil service.

state-wide and in her new home in Chesterfield, Va. She teaches through the Virginia Cooperative Extension Service. Willie also volunteers with the Palliative Care Unit at her nearby cancer center.

BETTY BETTS CONNER '54 and her husband moved to an assisted living facility in Flowood, Miss.

CATHERINE BYRD GIFFORD '54 retired from Pensacola State College after teaching English for more than 20 years. She still tutors members of the basketball teams.

▲ SARA STEMBRIDGE PERRY '54, at her 65th class reunion, Homecoming 2019, retired after teaching 4th grade for 20 years, but spends a great deal of time volunteering in the Birmingham area.

1950s

MARTHA DEAN '51 celebrated her 90th birthday in 2019. Helping her celebrate were Huntingdon classmate SARAH BOWDEN '51, (mother of LAURA BOWDEN CARPENTER '77 and LARRY BOWDEN '80), and TERRI SMITH FRANCIS '80. Martha and Sarah not only roomed together, they marched side-by-side at graduation.

RUTH STONE STRANGE '52 lost her husband of 65 years, Bill, in May 2018. We extend our condolences to Ruth and her family.

DR. BETTY VAUGHN '52 moved to Indian River Estates in Florida.

BARBARA "WILLIE" WILHEIT GEER '53 gave up her farming shovels in rural Prince George County, Va., and traded them for trowels as she teaches Good Gardening with fellow Master Gardeners

MARY JOHNSON TOLLESON '54 enjoys drawing and writing books in her retirement. She also works with the local historical society and garden club in Tallapoosa, Ga.

▲ Dr. BOBBIE SUE COOP WELCH '54, center, and her husband, Jack, met and married while she was a freshman and he was about to leave for service in the U.S. Navy. They have been married for 69 years, and are pictured with their daughter, Becky Smalley, at Homecoming 2019.

REITA SAMPLE DAVIS '55 has been through several rounds of radiation after a return of cancer in April. We wish her a complete recovery.

The Rev. BILLY GAITHER '55 retired in 2003 and lives in Ozark, Ala., where he fills in for pastors when asked and writes a weekly column for the Southern Star newspaper. His wife of 66 years, CAROLYN LOFTIN GAITHER '54, passed away in April 2019. We extend our deepest condolences.

ANN MANRY KENYON '57 painted the official portrait of Alabama Gov. Kay Ivey in 2019. The painting hangs in the capitol rotunda.

LYN BENTLEY TUCKER '58 taught and served as registrar for Houston Academy in Dothan, Ala., for 35 years before retiring.

1960s

A NASA story about Huntingdon alumna (math and business major) ETHEL HEINECKE BAUER '60, who was a pioneer for women engineers in the space program, caught our eye. Read more at <https://www.nasa.gov/centers/marshall/history/ethel-heinecke-bauer.html>.

WALTER COOPER '60 still teaches and enjoys traveling through Europe.

CLASS NOTES

LENNIE LANKFORD '60 is a hospice volunteer and works with an activist group for Black Lives Matter.

We extend condolences to THERESA MAJOR '61, whose husband, the Rev. Roy Major, passed away in May 2019.

MARILYN BEASON MOTLEY '61 moved to Vinings, Ga., after 23 years in Conyers.

EDWIN CLARK TAYLOR '61 serves as president of the All Sport Association of Northwest Florida. In 2012, Eddie was inducted into his high school's inaugural Hall of Fame.

JOE COLLEY '62 is enjoying his retirement with his wife of 55 years. Ordained in the United Methodist Church in 1965, he served 8 years in local churches in the North Ga. Conference. Joe entered the U.S. Army chaplaincy in 1973, where he served as a senior chaplain during Desert Storm and Desert Shield and was responsible for 700 army chaplains. He retired from the army in 1993 and returned to the North Ga. Conference, where he served another 16 years. He then returned to school for a teaching certificate and taught history for 18 years—a passion for which he credits his Huntingdon history professor, DR. GORDON CHAPPELL—before retiring in 2016.

SHIRLEY (LUCKY) BRETTEL ESNEUL '62 has retired from teaching and her husband has retired after 50 years in pharmacy. They live on the Alabama Gulf Coast.

FALL AND WINTER SPORTS

1 FOOTBALL

The Huntingdon football team brought home its fourth conference title in five years this season. The Hawks were 7-3 in the regular season and clinched the USA South title, advancing to the NCAA playoffs for the fifth time in program history. After a victory in round one against Berry College, the Hawks lost to defending champions the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in round two. Otis Porter '20, USA South Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-Conference, rewrote the Hawks' receiving records this season and became the program's career leader in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdown receptions. Joining Otis on the All-Conference first-team were running back Eric Thomas '21, offensive lineman Darrell Hixon '22, and linebacker Mal Caldwell '21. Quarterback Michael Lambert '20, offensive linemen Reed Crosby '20 and Kodee Kuncho '20, defensive lineman DeAnte' Griffith '20, and kicker Cole Starr '22 were named second-team All-Conference. Head coach Mike Turk garnered USA South Coach of the Year honors.

2 VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team (23-15) earned its second consecutive 20-win season, reached the USA South Athletic Conference Tournament for a fourth straight season, and advanced to semifinals for the first time. Amy Tyma '21 (pictured, left) earned conference Player of the Year honors, first-team All-Conference honors for a second consecutive season, and first-team West Division honors for a third season. Amy is the first female Huntingdon student-athlete to earn USA South Player of the Year recognition in any sport since Huntingdon joined the conference in 2013. She also became the first Huntingdon volleyball player to earn AVCA honorable mention All-Region honors during the NCAA era. Joining her on the USA South West Division team were Addison Genard '20 (first-team), April Reese '20 (second-team) and Ashley Murphy '22 (second-team).

3 SOCCER

The women's soccer team reached the USA South Tournament for a fourth straight season and the men's soccer team won more games than in any season since 2003. Under first-year head coach Cliff Jordan, the Lady Hawks finished with a 6-11-2 record and reached the conference quarterfinals. Erin Cembrale '23 and Erika Gebhard '22 (pictured) earned second-team USA South West Division honors. The men posted a 7-10 record and beat in-state rival Birmingham-Southern for the first time during the NCAA era. Kelan LeBlanc '22 was named third-team All-Conference for a second straight season. Kelan, the program's NCAA-era career leader in assists, also set the program's NCAA-era season record for assists and tied the NCAA-era season record for points this year.

4 CROSS COUNTRY

In its third season of competition since restarting the program in fall 2017, the Hawks made progress under the guidance of first-year head coach Ed Wright. The program competed in six men's events and five women's events and hosted the second home meet in program history. The Huntingdon College Invitational was held Sept. 20 at Greenbrier Track.

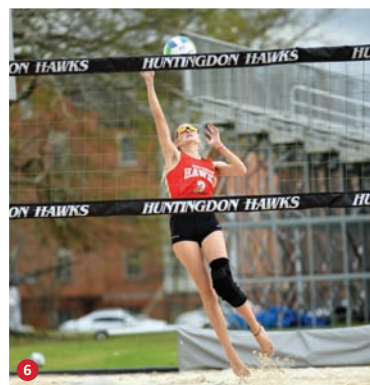

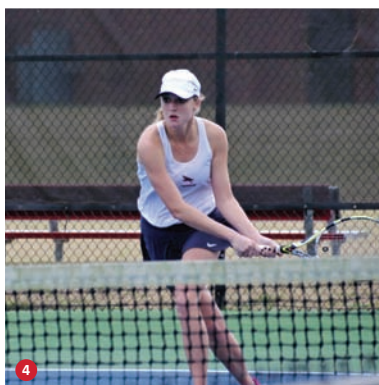

5 BASKETBALL

The Huntingdon women's basketball team began a new era and reached new heights in the 2019-2020 season. With the retirement of Buzz Phillips, the program's winningest coach, former player and longtime assistant coach Paige Huff '08 guided the Lady Hawks to the program's best record of the NCAA era (22-5), the longest winning streak of the NCAA era (12 games), and the team's first appearance in the USA South Tournament semifinals. T.I. Duncan '19 (pictured, shooting), the program's NCAA-era career leader in assists, earned third-team All-South Region honors—the third Lady Hawk to earn All-Region recognition. T.I. also earned first-team USA South All-Conference and West Division honors, while Shaonica Thomas '20 was named second-team West Division. Six women earned Academic All-Conference recognition. The men's team reached the USA South Tournament for the first time since 2014 and finished with a 13-13 record. The Hawks won 11 of their final 19 games. Six men were named Academic All-Conference.

6 WRESTLING

The fifth-year wrestling program turned in another successful season and set a new mark with eight head-to-head victories. Huntingdon closed the season in the NCAA Division III Lower Midwest Regional Tournament. Senior Wyatt Miller '19 (pictured) became the second Huntingdon wrestler to reach 40 career victories and five wrestlers earned Academic All-Conference honors.

SPRING SPORTS

1 GOLF

The No. 2-ranked men's golf team finished as the Division III national runner-up and won their first USA South Conference title. Drew Mathers '20 (pictured right), Stephen Shephard '19, Henry Gee '19 (pictured left), and Mark Connelly '19 received All-America and All-Region recognition. Drew, Stephen, Henry, and Carson Whitton '22 were also named All-Conference, with Drew earning Golfer of the Year and Carson earning Rookie of the Year. Drew, named to the Jack Nicklaus team and the second-ranked golfer in Division III, set three NCAA-era program records; won the USA South Tournament; and placed third in the national tournament. Stephen, a Jack Nicklaus Award finalist, set two NCAA-era program records. Director of Golf Dave Schreyer '89 was named the Golf Coaches Association of America's Division III South Region Coach of the Year and USA South Coach of the Year. Henry, Stephen, and Drew were named Academic All-America Scholars, eight men earned Academic All-Conference, and the team earned the GCAA Team Academic Award. The 11th-year women's team was ranked in the top-25 for most of the spring season. Vanessa Leiterman '19, an All-America Scholar, became the second Lady Hawk to earn All-Region honors. Three women earned Academic All-Conference.

2 BASEBALL

Hawks baseball climbed as high as 10th in Division III and reached 20 wins for the 14th time in 15 seasons under head coach D.J. Conville '98. The Hawks achieved their longest winning streak of the NCAA era with 17 games. Returning to the USA South Tournament for a fourth consecutive season, the team finished with a 24-16 record. Shortstop Wes Powell '20 (pictured) earned All-Conference honors and was named second-team All-Region. Pitcher Wallace Henry '20 earned second-team All-Conference honors and Tucker Duke '22 was named the USA South Rookie Pitcher of the Year. Sixteen players were named Academic All-Conference.

3 SOFTBALL

The softball team set an NCAA-era program record for wins and reached the USA South Tournament for a sixth consecutive season, finishing with a 31-15 record, and reaching 30 wins for the first time during the NCAA era. Madison Hunt '20 and Annie Nolan '22 were named first-team All-Conference and West Division. Alyssa Singleterry '19 (pictured), Rayne Ellis '19, Lauren Melton '21, and Madison Perryman '21 were named second-team West Division. Eleven players were named Academic All-Conference.

4 TENNIS

The women's tennis team earned its 15th consecutive winning season with a 14-5 record and advanced to the USA South Tournament for a sixth straight season. Josie Waddell '19 (pictured) was named first-team All-Conference and first-team West Division and Zoya Robinson '19 (first-team) and Alex Burnham '22 (second-team) were West Division selections. Josie is the program's first two-time first-team All-Conference selection in the USA South. She broke the program's NCAA-era record for career doubles victories. Five Lady Hawks were named Academic All-Conference and ITA Scholar Athletes. This was the 14th time since 2004 the Lady Hawks were recognized as an ITA All-Academic team. On the men's side, the Hawks had a 10-10 record but missed a trip to the conference tournament.

5 LACROSSE

The eighth-year men's lacrosse team finished with a 12-7 record and a return trip to the USA South Tournament championship game. The Hawks won a second consecutive regular-season title, but lost the tournament title to Piedmont. The loss was the Hawks' first against a USA South team in the two seasons the conference has sponsored men's lacrosse. Sam Hitt '19, Adrian Harper '19, and Matt Murphy '19 were named first-team All-Conference, Raymond Edwards '21 was named second-team All-Conference, and eight Hawks earned Academic All-Conference honors. The young women's lacrosse team finished with a 4-12 record. Seven Lady Hawks earned Academic All-Conference honors.

6 BEACH VOLLEYBALL

With a schedule that included only three Division III matches, the third-year Hawks earned a 4-15 record, winning against Division I (Nicholls State), Division II (Carson-Newman), Division III (Principia), and NAIA (William Carey) opponents. Nine women were named Academic All-Conference. Pictured: Nichole LeFevre '19.

Honor Roll of Donors, 2018–2019

Huntingdon College gratefully acknowledges the contributions of countless men and women who have given unselfishly of their time, talent, and financial resources to advance this institution. To the alumni, parents, friends, businesses, foundations, organizations, students, faculty, and staff whose generosity during the past year supported myriad programs, scholarships, and special projects, the College extends its sincere thanks. This report contains the names of donors who made gifts to Huntingdon during the fiscal year of June 1, 2018, through May 31, 2019. It includes those who made capital gifts as well as donations to The Huntingdon Fund. This list does not include those who made pledges, but not gifts, during 2018–2019, or those whose gifts were received after May 31, 2019. An asterisk denotes those who are deceased.

We strive to make this honor roll error-free; however, if we have inadvertently omitted your name or listed it incorrectly, please accept our apologies and notify us by calling the Office of College and Alumni Relations at (334) 833-4566 so that we can correct our records.

The Huntingdon Society

Members of the Huntingdon Society contributed $1,000 or more during the fiscal year beginning June 1, 2018, and ending May 31, 2019.

Legacy Gift

After graduating from Huntingdon, Josie Parker Greene '44 earned a graduate degree in psychiatric social work from the University of Georgia. She served as director of the consultation and education unit of the Central Georgia Community Mental Health Center in Macon, Ga., providing counseling, marriage and family therapy, and training for law enforcement staff dealing with mentally disturbed individuals. After retiring, she worked part-time as a counselor for local mental health services. She was passionate about services for the mentally challenged, and she fought diligently on their behalf. She was instrumental in securing the funds to build the mental health facility in Cordele, Ga. The building was completed in July 2000 and dedicated in her honor. According to her obituary, “Josie Greene made a difference because she never shied away from a challenge. She might have stepped on a few toes, but she got things done. She was small in stature but big in life.” Josie received the Alumni Loyalty Award in 2000. A faithful donor to the College, she designated gifts to 29 family members and four institutions in her estate plans, including Huntingdon College. Her gift was unrestricted.

2,870 gifts were made to the Annual Fund during 2018–2019, with 55.5 percent of those gifts received from alumni; 23.8 percent from friends of the College; 4.1 percent from non-alumni faculty and staff; and 16.6 percent from churches, organizations, corporations, foundations, and students.

Legacy Gift

Mary Nell Atherton '48 was a teacher and a pillar of First UMC-Tallasee, Ala. A frugal steward of her resources, Mary Nell honored Huntingdon and her church each with half of her estate when she passed away in 2018. In March 2019, Huntingdon President J. Cameron West and several other representatives of the College were on hand to celebrate Mary Nell Atherton Day at the church. The executor of Mary Nell's estate presented President West with a $700,000 check as part of that day of celebration and remembrance. Former trustee Dale Segrest '64 was instrumental in assisting Mary Nell with her estate plans.

The Huntingdon STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION was formed in 2012 by a group of students who wanted to demonstrate their loyalty to Huntingdon and to assist the Office of College and Alumni Relations by making gifts of $10 or more to the Huntingdon Fund. These students' names are included among the classes of 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022. We celebrate these students for their foresight; for their understanding that each private college's strength is built by the support of private gifts; and for their enthusiastic support.

NEELEY ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

During the 2018–2019 giving year, The Mary Ann Neeley '54 Memorial Scholarship was established by Lenore Ealy and John T. Thomas, in memory of their aunt.

Governor Kay Ivey was on campus to address Girls State and to preside over the installation of the Girls State governor and officers in June 2019.

A group of Hall of Famers and friends of the late Coach John Mabry '61, who died in April 2018, raised funds to commemorate their former teammate, friend, and coach by naming a suite of athletic offices in Roland Student Center in Coach Mabry's memory. Led by Coach John Bricken '67, David Myrick '67, and Ed Brown '68, the Coach John Mabry Athletic Offices were dedicated during the Hall of Fame presentation as part of Homecoming 2019. June Hargrove Mabry '71, John's wife, center, and son, John Mabry Jr. '87, left, were at the ceremony. They are pictured with senior vice president Anthony Leigh.

DEAN ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

Dexter (’13) and Sara Beth Dean, who invited the Marching Scarlet and Grey to play at their wedding reception (a surprise from Sara Beth to Dexter, a former drummer for the band) and were married surrounded by Huntingdon alumni, created the Dr. Dexter and Sara Beth Dean Endowed Scholarship during the 2018–2019 fiscal year. Their gift will ensure that others can attend and enjoy the Huntingdon experience.

CONTINUE THE LEGACY!

Alumni can impact positively the lives of prospective students with the awarding of the $11,000 Alumni Legacy Grant. Alums may refer one student annually by sending the student's name, address, phone numbers, email address, and current school information; your name, address, class year, and contact information; and a paragraph or two about how you know the student and why you think he or she would be an asset to Huntingdon. The Alumni Legacy Grant is renewable for up to three additional years of study, requires on-campus residency, and requires the student to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of his or her degree. Applications cannot be submitted after the first day of classes of a student's first year at Huntingdon College. Please send your referral to Huntingdon College Office of College and Alumni Relations, 1500 E. Fairview Avenue, Montgomery, AL 36106; alumni@hawks.huntingdon.edu. You may complete the online form at www.huntingdon.edu/alumni-legacy-grant.

Memorials

The dates of contributions recorded for Memorials & Tributes reflect gifts received from June 1, 2018, through October 31, 2019. These dates differ from the rest of the Donor Report.

HUNTINGDON FACULTY AND FRIENDS

HERMAN BOLDEN, May 1, 2019; Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Bolden and his wife, the late EMMIE CARDWELL BOLDEN '44 (who died February 16, 2017), were members of the Order of the Countess of Huntingdon and of the Huntingdon Society. They were faithful donors to the College for decades.

LUCY CUNNINGHAM BOND, August 10, 2019; Montgomery, Ala. Lucy and her sisters, Jane Dunlap and Portis Cunningham, established the Ladye Portis Cunningham Endowed Scholarship in memory of their mother, a member of the Class of 1904.

THOMAS CHAPMAN, March 8, 2019; Montgomery, Ala. We extend condolences to his wife, Jean Chapman. The Chapmans were instrumental in supporting the major renovation to Bellingrath Hall in the 2000s.

MARION HENRY (BUBBA) HAMPTON JR., September 26, 2019; Montgomery, Ala. Bubba, who spent many days sitting on a bench or at a picnic table on the Huntingdon Green, was the husband of Harriet Hampton, Huntingdon director of housekeeping; father of Joanna Hampton Collier '09, admission specialist, Huntingdon Evening Studies, and Heather Hampton Slagle '99, administrative assistant to the Huntingdon senior vice president and treasurer; and grandfather of Anna Grace Lawson '22 and Caleb Slagle '22.

Huntingdon benefactor RENIS JONES, whose contribution in memory of his wife, NOBLE SEAY JONES '49, and her twin sister, PEGGY SEAY COMPTON '49, refurbished and renamed the Seay Twins Art Gallery on the Huntingdon Green in 2007, died June 27, 2019. A member of the Order of the Countess of Huntingdon and the Huntingdon Society, he was an architect, a world traveler, and a benevolent patron of Huntingdon's arts programs.

The Rev. MALCOLM YAPLE, November 14, 2018; Chesapeake, Va. Rev. Yaple was the husband of RUTH BARNES YAPLE '51. Together, the Yaples established the Daniel and Shellie Barnes Endowed Scholarship in memory of Ruth's parents. After Ruth's death in 2009, Rev. Yaple established the Ruth Barnes Yaple Endowed Scholarship in her memory. He was a member of the Order of the Countess of Huntingdon, the Huntingdon Hall of Honor, the John Massey Heritage Society, and the Huntingdon Society.

Huntingdon benefactor Renis Jones

Dr. Frank Buckner, PROFESSOR EMERITUS OF RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Thirty years of Huntingdon College students remember the Rev. Dr. Frank W. Buckner Jr., professor emeritus of religion and philosophy, who joined the Huntingdon faculty in 1987 after serving as a United Methodist pastor in North Carolina and remained on faculty until his retirement in 2017. Loved and admired equally for his teaching abilities and for his humble, gentle spirit, Dr. Buckner died June 15, 2019, in Montgomery at age 69.

Huntingdon President J. Cameron West said, "Frank Buckner was my friend before he became my colleague—we both were educated at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill in our undergraduate years and at Duke University for our graduate degrees—and then reconnected when I came to Huntingdon as president in 2003. Frank had a reputation of encouraging students to think more widely, deeply, and fully. Students emerged from his classes having re-examined the faith-information they had inherited or learned from others and having claimed a new level of faith and understanding that was all their own. He was a tremendous person, a gifted teacher, and a treasured colleague. The Huntingdon family will miss him dearly."

Dr. Buckner earned his Ph.D. in theology at the Divinity School, Duke University. In addition to 30 years of service on the Huntingdon faculty, he served as College chaplain, associate provost, department chair, division chair, and shepherded many Huntingdon Plan travel-study trips abroad. He was fluent in seven languages, including Chinese, French, German, Greek, Biblical Hebrew, and Latin. He was awarded Huntingdon's Julia Lightfoot Sellers teaching award two times, as well as the Winn and Gordon Chappell Academic Enrichment Award and the UMC General Board for Higher Education and Ministry's Exemplary Teacher Award. Upon his retirement, his faculty peers voted that he receive emeritus status. He was honored with the College's Rhoda Coleman Ellison Distinguished Faculty Lifetime Service Award during 2017 Commencement Exercises.

"Frank dedicated his entire college teaching career to Huntingdon College, and our students and alumni are the better for it," said President West. "He loved teaching so much, he also taught for his church, First UMC-Montgomery. He made a tremendous impact on minds and lives."

The family designated that memorial gifts be made to the Frank W. Buckner Scholarship Fund, Huntingdon College.
